
Statement by Zach Hall, Ph.D., Interim President, California Institute for Regenerative Medicine Regarding Legal Challenges to Proposition 71

Posted: July 11, 2005

Emeryville, CA—"California's medical research scientists are poised to move ahead and join scientists in South Korea and elsewhere on the forefront of stem cell research. Unfortunately, we are prevented from doing so by special interests whose sole intentions are to thwart the voters' overwhelming endorsement of the science."
